

Workshop Reference number: 2010-1-LT1-GRU13-03192

Venue: Vilnius

Date of the Workshop: 25/07/2011 - 31/07/2011

The social integration of the art people in the context of migration

Subject area: Cultural heritage
Social integration / exclusion
Other

Working language(s): EN

Target Group + Translation:

The art people living in migration and indirect all people faced negative social subsequence of migration.
Expected number of participants: 18

Main activities Programme + Programme translation:

1. The seminars and discussions: - Seeking the common ground – public policy, art people (local and living in migration) and the society – to general mobilization of dialogue and creation strategy orientated to comprehensive and open European culture life - Personal experience of art people living in migration and examine the barriers or other negative circumstances for full social and professional inclusion and self-expression.
2. Team work of participants and exhibition of joint works to gain new personal experience for art people and to initiate interest and tolerance of local society.
3. Analyse and description of innovative ways and methods as well as technologies how creativeness and ICT means may help to include more people and organizations to the process of people education, valuable intercommunication and taken of the best international practice.

Workshop Organiser:

VsI Iseivijos idejų centras, „IIC“